

Visiting Rosslyn Chapel: essential information

Opening times:

January to May:	Monday to Saturday 9.30am - 5pm (last entry 4.30pm) Sunday 12 noon - 4.45pm (last entry 4.15pm)
June to August:	Monday to Saturday 9.30am - 6pm (last entry 5.30pm) Sunday 12 noon - 4.45pm (last entry 4.15pm)
September to December:	Monday to Saturday 9.30am - 5pm (last entry 4.30pm) Sunday 12 noon - 4.45pm (last entry 4.15pm)

Please note that last admission is 30 minutes before closing. Most visitors spend between 1 and 3 hours on site, so please allow enough time for travelling and enjoying your visit.

Rosslyn Chapel is a working church and may close occasionally for weddings or funerals. Details will be posted on the Chapel website – www.rosslynchapel.com

The Chapel and Visitor Centre close on 24 and 25 December for Christmas and 31 December and 1 January for New Year.

Getting to Rosslyn Chapel:

By car:

The Chapel is located within the village of Roslin, off A701; for satnav, our postcode is EH25 9PU. Look out for the brown tourist signposts as you approach the village. There is free parking at the Chapel.

If driving from Edinburgh city centre, follow signs to the Newington or Liberton areas, then continue along the A701, towards Penicuik.

If driving from east or west of the city, take the A720 Edinburgh City Bypass to the Straiton junction, then the A701, following signs to Penicuik.w

From the south, follow the A74(M) then the A701 or follow the signs for the Chapel on the A7 after Newtongrange.

By bus:

There is a good bus service every day to and from Roslin village. A single journey is currently £1.60 per adult and you must have the correct money.

From Edinburgh city centre, look for a Lothian Service 37 and check that it says 'via Roslin' at the front of the bus. If in doubt, please check with the driver. The journey from the city centre will take around 45 to 60 minutes and there are stops on Princes Street (shop side) or North Bridge. The bus comes into Roslin village and the Chapel is just a few minutes' walk from the bus stop at the Original Rosslyn Hotel.

Service 40 is ideal if you are travelling from Portobello, Musselburgh, Dalkeith, Bonnyrigg, Loanhead or Penicuik.

By taxi:

A taxi from Edinburgh will provide direct travel to the Chapel. The journey time from the city centre will be approximately 40 minutes and a single taxi fare will be around £30.

Admission prices:

Adult:	£9
Concession (please note that proof may be requested – over 60, unemployed, student, Armed Forces):	£7
Children in a family group:	Free

You can change your day ticket into an annual pass at no extra cost – please ask for details on arrival.

Your visit:

Rosslyn Chapel Guides give information talks throughout the day, providing an introduction to the Chapel's history and main carvings. These usually start on the hour (although at 12.15pm rather than 12 noon) and there is no extra charge for these. Talks are optional for visitors.

Free leaflets, which include maps showing the main carvings, are available in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Dutch, Polish, Russian, Mandarin and Japanese.

Please note that no photography is allowed inside the Chapel, as this can distract and inconvenience other visitors. There is no restriction on exterior photography for personal use.

No dogs, apart from assistance dogs, are allowed in the Chapel, grounds or visitor centre. Information for visitors with disabilities is available on the Chapel website – www.rosslynchapel.com/visit/access/

After your visit:

We greatly value feedback from visitors –

Complete our survey on your mobile, tablet or PC and you could win a voucher for Amazon – www.rosslynchapel.visitrac.co.uk

Post a review on TripAdvisor – www.tripadvisor.co.uk

For more ideas of days out in the area, visit www.visitmidlothian.org.uk

Rosslyn Chapel, Chapel Loan, Roslin, Midlothian, EH25 9PU

Telephone 0131 440 2159

Email mail@rosslynchapel.com

Rosslyn Chapel is managed by Rosslyn Chapel Trust, a charity registered in Scotland, number SC024324, which depends on income from visitors, donations and legacies to conserve the Chapel for future generations to appreciate.

www.rosslynchapel.com

facebook.com/RosslynChapelTrust

twitter.com/rosslynchapel

