THE Green Tourism BUSINESS SCHEME GOLD

2026 Tripadvisor Travellers' Choice™

Welcome

Founded in 1446 by Sir William St Clair, Rosslyn Chapel has inspired, attracted and intrigued visitors and artists for generations. We warmly welcome groups to Rosslyn Chapel and hope this guide will help with planning a visit. Just 7 miles from Edinburgh, and open to visitors all year round, the Chapel and visitor centre are available for daytime visits or private evening visits. We look forward to welcoming you soon.

Timed visits

Each day is divided into 90-minute timeslots to help manage the flow of visitors inside the Chapel. Bookings should be made for one of the timeslots listed below –

Monday to Saturday

Early morning	9.00am to 10.30am	Information talk at 9.30am
Mid morning	10.30am to 12noon	Information talk at 11.00am
Lunchtime	12.15pm to 1.45pm	Information talk at 12.45pm
Early afternoon	2.00pm to 3.30pm	Information talk at 2.30pm
Late afternoon	3.30pm to 5.00pm	Information talk at 4.00pm

Sunday

Early afternoon	12noon to 1.30pm	Information talk at 12.30pm
Mid afternoon	1.45pm to 3.15pm	Information talk at 2.15pm
Late afternoon	3.30pm to 5.00pm	Information talk at 4.00pm

Please note that visits to the visitor centre, including gift shop and coffee shop, can be made after your 90-minute timeslot. Entry before your timeslot starts will not generally be possible. Bookings can be made through our website, rosslynchapel.com, or, for groups of 15 and more, please contact us by email to mail@rosslynchapel.com

Promote your visits

If you would like images of the Chapel to use for marketing, or would like to arrange a familiarisation visit, please contact director@rosslynchapel.com

Accessible visits

Please refer to the access guide on our website, rosslynchapel.com/visit/access for information about accessibility in the Chapel and visitor centre. We have worked with AccessAble so you can find out about our facilities before you visit. AccessAble's surveyors assessed our venue to create a Detailed Access Guide, which is available on our website.

AccessAble

Informative visits

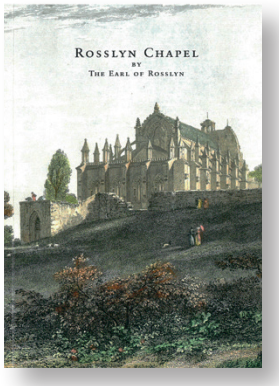

Throughout the day, our Guides will give a short talk in English, lasting around 15 minutes, about the history of the Chapel and its main features. We also have free information leaflets, with maps of the main carvings, in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Dutch, Polish, Portuguese, Hungarian, Russian, Slovak, Swedish, Japanese, Mandarin, Ukrainian and Czech. External Guides are welcome to speak to their groups in the Chapel grounds or, by prior arrangement, using a whisper set with their group seated in the Chapel. Due to the size of the building, we do not allow guided tours inside the Chapel.

Our Souvenir Guides provide much more information and are ideal for groups. The 16-page guides give a comprehensive introduction to the building's history and main features and are available in 12 translations – French, German, Spanish, Italian, Dutch, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Slovak, Swedish, Japanese and Mandarin. They are available to buy in our gift shop or can be bought in advance through our website shop – https://www.rosslynchapel.com/shop/

Pre-purchase souvenir guides for your group at half-price: £1.50 per copy (applies only to translated versions). Our official English Guidebook, written by The Earl of Rosslyn, is also available to buy in our gift shop or online shop.

Private visits

Private visits to the Chapel can be arranged throughout the year, either before we open or after we close. Enjoying exclusive access is a great way for groups, companies, or individuals to have an even more memorable visit. There is no minimum number required (a minimum charge applies). Catering can be arranged for the evening. For a copy of our guide to private visits, or to discuss your requirements further, please contact director@rosslynchapel.com

Food & drink

From a glass of champagne and canapes to a hog roast, we can make your private evening visit even more special.

Drinks reception – Enjoy a glass of champagne and seasonal canapes following your private visit. We can also offer wine, local beer, custom cocktails/mocktails or cups of freshly brewed tea and Italian aroma coffee to meet your preferences.

Bowl food or hot fork buffet – Designed to be easy to eat while standing, making it the perfect and more substantial alternative or addition to canapes.

Grazing table – make a statement with our grazing table featuring Scottish cheeses, cured meats, fresh fruit and accompaniments (minimum number of 10).

Gourmet Barbecue – Our delicious barbecue includes a selection of beef, pork and chicken options to choose from along with seasonal salads (minimum number of 20).

Hog roast – specially selected Scottish hog roast served with crispy crackling, homemade stuffing and salad (minimum number of 80).

Seasonal dinner – enjoy a plated dinner full of seasonal ingredients – 3, 4 or 5 courses – from our tried and tested favourites or create your own bespoke menu!

Great value visits

Admission prices from 1 April 2027 are:

£13.00	full price (adults aged 18-64)
£10.00	reduced price (visitors who are disabled, aged over 65, unemployed, Young Scot cardholders, students, or in Armed Forces)
Free	children aged 17 or under in family group; recognised carers

Please note that groups of children, for example on a visit arranged through a language school, would pay at the normal student rate. Pre-booked tickets are needed for each visitor. Visits, normally covered by voucher, and invoiced, can still be booked on our website. If a Guide is accompanying the visitors, they should still book a place using the option of 'passholder' (free of charge).

A sustainable Visit

We try to work in a sustainable way which minimises our impact on the environment. From our sustainable heating to rainwater harvester – and production of our own honey from the Chapel Bees – you can read more about this work on our website at rosslynchapel.com/about/sustainability

As a charity, the Trust depends on income from visitors, donations and legacies to continue with its work so that the places in our care can be enjoyed and appreciated by future generations. Your visit will make a great difference to this work.

All year visits

Rosslyn Chapel is open every day except 24 and 25 December and 1 January.

Terms and conditions for group visits

1. Tickets are valid for specified timeslots only and cannot be exchanged for another. As we have capacities for each timeslot, your allocation will be kept for up to 20 minutes after the start of the timeslot and, if your group has not arrived or been in touch to advise of a later arrival time, your tickets may then be released to others for sale.
2. Please note the timeslot for your visit. You will not generally be able to begin your visit before this timeslot starts and staff may ask your group to leave the Chapel at the end.
3. Proof of reduced price entry should be presented on arrival.
4. Changes to numbers or cancellations should be notified within 48 hours of the visit or the Trust reserves the right to charge for the visit as booked. Once numbers are confirmed and payment has been taken by credit/debit card, no refund can be given for any individuals not attending on the day of the visit. Cancellations should be confirmed by email.
5. Free admission will be given to drivers, group leaders or Guides, including members of the Scottish Tourist Guides Association and members of the Scottish Independent Tour Operators Association.
